

ENABLING CHANGE

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

The true value of inclusion

I was part of a team who developed scalable training to help clients transition from legacy systems into new enterprise solutions.

I have been working in Accenture for nine years. I work as Functional Analyst.

I was part of a procurement team who realised a 50% savings target for our oil and gas client.

I had the opportunity to work for a community based client by executing a new electronic health records system.

I was a part of team who delivered a scalable, future-ready service delivery model.
